PARENT'S CORNER

Have you ever thought about how and why we make the decisions we make? Every decision we make is based on some authority. Same thing goes for our children. It's highly likely that your teenagers, like most teenagers, rely unconsciously on some combination of authorities including peers, family, the media, and their feelings. While all of these authorities can lead us in the right direction and to good decisions, there is one primary authority we are called to live in conscious submission to. It's the authority of the One who formed us, made us, and desires us to find our rightful place in life in a relationship with him. Perhaps the greatest parental responsibility we have is to teach—through our words and example—that all of life is to be lived under the authority of God. Our own eyes, ears, and lives must be focused on Jesus, who said, "I have been given all authority in heaven and on earth" (Matthew 28:18), and on God's revelation of himself in the Bible, which is inspired by God and is useful to teach us what is true and to make us realize what is wrong in our lives. It corrects us when we are wrong and teaches us to do what is right (2 Timothy 3:16). If this is the authority we live under, we'll be teaching the truth about their need to do the same.

PURITY NIGHT

BEAUTY...BIMBO...BOAZ...OR BOZO...
February 9th • 6-8pm

We will be taking a look into God's Word so you can become a woman worth pursuing, a beauty vs. a bimbo. We will also study the Word to find a man worth waiting for, Boaz vs. a bozo. Our culture constantly tells girls to look a certain way, as if they know what beauty is, but beauty is found in the heart and character of purity. The Word gives us a perfect model to look up to that's not posted on billboards, photoshopped into the latest fashion magazine, or a contestant on the newest reality T.V. show. Her name is Ruth. She followed after God and He provided a man who was worthy of marrying. He possessed strength, protection, and provision. Discover the lies young women believe and see what kind of man to wait for! God reserves the best to those who leave the choice up to Him!
